Wanda Sue May - Celebrating 100 Years of Good Living!

Wanda Sue was born on January 7, 1925, to Bernie and Miriam Wade at home, in Fort Smith, Arkansas. Her family moved to Shawnee, Oklahoma, where she lived through her high school years. After graduation, she worked with the USO in World War II, joining the Marine Corp Women's Reserve. As she was about to leave for Boot Camp, the war ended, changing her plans. In 1944, at 19 years old, she married Rene Lapointe. Not long after, he was killed in action on the French and German border. She then went back to Oklahoma, where she worked for the telephone company to assist in supporting Rene's mother. She attended Oklahoma University for a short time before moving to New Bedford Massachusetts, to be closer to her mother-in-law.

Adventure was calling Wanda Sue, so she moved to El Centro, California, where she became a Nanny. There, she met the "love of her life" Kenneth Eugene May, and married him just, after three months of dating. Kenneth was in the Navy and traveled much, but they somehow always remained in California. Her family grew in 1953 with her first daughter Patricia Ann, in 1957, her second daughter Janet, and again in 1959, the third daughter, Mary Jane. Her husband passed in 1986, but she continued residing in California until 2012, when she moved to Baton Rouge, to be closer to her daughter Janet.

Wanda Sue moved to Lake Sherwood Village June of 2018. She enjoys all the social events here and spends her spare time traveling all of the United States, visiting family and friends. She has two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

She is known among her family and friends as a "mama to all" and a "world class hugger."

Cheers to you, Wanda Sue on 100 years of good living!
